Snow Day!

On Friday, January 17th, Yellow School will have our annual Snow Day! We will have snow delivered for the children to play in and on! Be sure to send a change of clothes and a towel in case your child's clothes get wet from the snow. Hopefully, we will have a beautiful sunny day!

Registration for Next Year (Reminder)

We will be accepting applications for the 2020 – 2021 school year from FAMILIES CURRENTLY ENROLLED AT YELLOW

SCHOOL beginning January 31st at 6:00 AM. If you need any additional information, just let me know! I will send an email reminder as we get closer!

Kindergarten

January begins our trip around the world in which we will "visit" countries near and far. Our first continent is Antarctica which will allow us to learn more about penguins, ice, and snow!

Chapel Chat

Happy New Year! We trust that you all had a wonderful Christmas with your precious children; they are truly gifts from God! The month of January, we'll dive deeper in the book of Matthew and Luke. Jesus taught his followers about God's great and unique love through parables. We will hear about the special stories Jesus told in a way the multitude would understand and relate to. We'll work on our memory verse from John 15:9 "Jesus loves me" as a reminder that Jesus came to this earth to show us true love.

Spanish with Mrs. Chacon

Mrs. Chacon continues to teach our children Spanish and is excited to kick off the new year with a review of what we've learned so far. She will be teaching the children about all things winter as well!

Parent Conferences

On Wednesday, January 22nd, Yellow School will be closed for Parent/Teacher Conferences. I will be sending out a sign-up genius as we get closer for you to book your spot! We will have childcare available during the time you have your conference.

Dads and Doughnuts

On January 29th and 30th, Yellow School will have Dads and Doughnuts! From 8:45 to 9:30, Dads are invited to have doughnut holes with their child, mingle with other Dads, and have a picture taken!
